THE DAILY PRESS.

HONGKONG, MARCH 25th, 1890.

In defending himself against what he is pleased to term "vituperative rhetoric" Sir WILLIAM DES VOUX has allowed his infringement of temper to betray him into the commission of what to him may be unconscious misrepresentation, but misrepresentation all the same. In closing his despatch to the Secretary of State on the prohibition of the proposed concert at the Government Civil Hospital His Excellency says:—"These, then, my Lord, are the facts of the case that has occasioned the use on my account of an amusing variety in the flowers of vituperative rhetoric, of which I enclose some choice specimens taken from local newspapers published so lately as last week." One of the enclosures in the Daily Press of the 15th March. In that issue we reproduced a paragraph from Truth, which was given within quotation marks, and without one word of comment or endorsement. As every newspaper reader knows, a journal is not responsible for opinions expressed in quotations from its contemporaries, any more than it is for those of its correspondents. The item was given simply as a piece of news, on the supposition that our readers would be interested in perusing the comments of a London paper on a local incident. Though the facts of the case were known to us within a very short time of the occurrence, we refrained from making any comment on them, for the reason that it seemed to be a departmental matter, and that its public discussion could serve no good end and might—as is often the case where there are faults on both sides—engender strife and lead to unjust retributions. When, however, we found the subject referred to in Mr. LABOUVERRE'S characteristic manner in Truth we gave those of our readers who do not see that journal the opportunity of reading what that avowing though vulgar writer had to say. Such are the facts, so far as this journal is concerned. His Excellency in accusing us of indulging in "flowers of vituperative rhetoric" at his expense has, it will be seen, made an utterly groundless charge. That His Excellency would be guilty of misrepresentation or false accusation in cold blood we do not for a moment believe, but when a man allows his infirmity of temper to assume control of his pen or his tongue he has to take the responsibility for the words to which his name is attached. That Sir WILLIAM DES VOUX suffers from a very grave infirmity of temper, so grave indeed as sometimes to affect the discharge of some of his minor official duties, became known soon after his arrival in the colony. If, as it is often said, he is a "man of letters," it is, in our opinion, a very unfortunate one, and it is to be hoped that he will be able to control it in the future.

Oceanic on Saturday for Yokohama. A performance had been advertised for the forenoon, and a good many people went down to Barrington only to find the tent gone.

The operations in shares are now so constant and the fluctuations in the Hongkong market that this table will be of considerable assistance.
The pamphlet is on sale at Mr. W. Brewer's store.

On Saturday morning the Hon. J. M. P. O.
Late Surveyor-General, left here by the O. and and on the departure of the steamer a salvo of cannon was fired by his Chinese well-wishers.

the same gentleman's appointment as an official member of the Legislative Council, vice the Hon.
J. H. Stewart-Lockhart, is also gazetted. Mr. F. H.
May, Passed Cadet, is gazetted to the post of

From the Acoustic du Tonkin we learn that a terrible obstacle to the navigation of the river between Hanoi and Haiphong, has grown up by the shoaling of the Bamboo Passages, where there were the other day no more than a few feet of water, and now a great barrier to the tide.
The shoaling of the obstruction is strongly referred to the detention on the occasion referred to several persons intending to leave for France by the steamer Acoustic, which was detained from Haiphong and also the vessel by which they had intended to come.

The Union Line steamer Suisse, which arrived here on Saturday, experienced rather severe weather two days after starting on her voyage. She left the pier on the 23rd January, and discharged pilot at Dover on the 1st. She had strong easterly winds and rain, and the Channel, hitherto to a heavy gale in the Bay of Biscay. Here the ship, during the gale for thirty-seven hours, shipping very heavy seas and air. During the gale two boats were carried away. The Suisse was a fine ship, and carried a heavy cargo of coal, and passengers and crew. Proceeded on her voyage and reached Port Said on the 15th February, and after a detention of two days, she sailed for Suez on the 17th. On her voyage, she was detained on the Canal on the 19th February, when nothing notable happened until reaching this port.

The pirates who have for a long time past been harassing the Tonkin frontier towns, have been dispersed by a French command. They had set up a defensive position at Thuan, near Monky, and a continuous guerrilla warfare had been going on between the small garrisons and the freebooters.
On the approach of the column specially directed against them they evacuated their position, and the French followed them to the sea, where they were completely destroyed. On the 23rd February a Chinese band was encountered near the village of Thuan, and the French followed them to the sea, where they were completely destroyed. On the 23rd February a Chinese band was encountered near the village of Thuan, and the French followed them to the sea, where they were completely destroyed.

The Promoter of Macao, who holds a similar position to our Registrar-General as protector of Chinese, acted a graceful part in the celebration of the Chinese New Year. He issued a circular to the Chinese community in Macao, that three Chinese girls were kidnaped from one of the villages near Macao, and were on their way to the latter place, when the passage boat was captured by a gang of pirates, and the girls were carried off. The kidnappers were rescued by a fishing junk, and when they arrived at Macao the captain of the junk in making his report at the Harbour Office told the information in the following words:—"The girls were taken from the village of Thuan, and were on their way to Macao, when they were captured by a gang of pirates. The kidnappers
